

COMPANY POLICY

Industry: IT Software Development & Marketing

1. Introduction

SHNOOR International LLC is committed to delivering innovative, high-quality software development and marketing solutions. Our policies are designed to ensure ethical conduct, productivity, and a supportive work environment for employees, clients, and stakeholders.

2. Code of Conduct

All employees must maintain professionalism, integrity, and respect in dealings with colleagues, clients, and partners.

Discrimination, harassment, or abusive behaviour will not be tolerated.

Confidential information related to clients, projects, or the company must be protected.

3. Employee Background Verification (BGV) Policy

All selected candidates must undergo verification of personal details, educational qualifications, past employment, and criminal records (if applicable) during probation period (6 months). Employment is confirmed only after successful BGV completion.

4. Working Hours & Attendance

Standard working hours: Monday to Friday, 10:00 AM to 07:00 PM.

Employees who punch in after 10:10 AM for more than three (3) days in a calendar month will be considered as having exceeded the permissible late punch-in limit.

In such cases for fulltime employees, 0.5 (half) day of Casual Leave (CL) or Sick Leave (SL) will be deducted as compensation. If the employee has exhausted their Casual Leave or Sick Leave balance, the deduction will be adjusted against their available Annual Leave balance if allotted. If leave balances are exhausted, the day will be treated as Loss of Pay (LOP) and, for Interns; deductions will be done from the monthly stipend.

If an employee fails to punch in after the lunch break, no regularization will be permitted. For full-time employees, half a day (0.5 day) will be deducted from their allotted leave balance. For interns, a deduction equivalent to half a day (0.5 day) will be made from their monthly stipend.

Employees are expected to be punctual and report any planned or unplanned absences in advance through the official HR Portal.

Remote work and flexible hours may be considered based on role and project needs with prior approval.

5. Internship Policy

Interns must follow company policy, work schedules and meetings, confidentiality norms, and assigned tasks. Misconduct may result in termination.

6. Leave Policy & Payout Dates

Annual Leave: 9 paid leaves per year.

Sick Leave/Casual Leave: 3 Days per Quarter

Salary Date: Every Month on or before 5th.

Public Holidays: As per the official holiday calendar published annually.

All leaves will be allotted on a pro-rata basis. Annual Leave (AL) can be carried forward to the following year. However, Casual Leave (CL) or Sick Leave (SL) cannot be carried forward and will lapse at the end of the leave cycle.

Employees are entitled to a maximum of 3 days of leave per quarter, which may be availed either as Casual Leave (CL) or Sick Leave (SL). Employees cannot avail 3 Casual Leaves and 3 Sick Leaves separately within the same quarter.

Annual Leave will be granted only upon successful completion of 1 year of continuous service with the company from the Date of Joining.

For any planned leave for 1-7 days, an employee needs to apply leave 2 days prior. For leave of more than 7 days, an employee needs to apply 30 days prior. However, unpaid leave can be availed by an employee in case of an emergency which will be considered as Leave Without Pay (LWP).

Sandwich Leave Policy:

The Sandwich policy is a general practice followed by companies and organizations where a usual weekends gets clubbed with the paid leave applied by the employee just near the weekend and is treated as a leave day. For example - If leave is applied by an employee for Friday and subsequent Monday, the company shall treat both Saturday and Sunday also as leave.

Any leaves during internship will be considered as Leave Without Pay (LWP).

7. Payroll Processing Policy

Payroll is processed monthly based on attendance records and HR approvals. Deductions may apply for late arrivals, unpaid leaves, or policy violations and for Interns, statutory deductions including government cess, professional tax, and TDS (10%) will be applied.

Any payroll discrepancy should be reported within 15 days after receiving the remuneration which will be adjusted with next month remuneration.

8. Data Security & Confidentiality

All employees must adhere to internal data protection protocols.

Sharing of client data or proprietary code outside authorized systems is strictly prohibited. Unauthorized access, sharing, or storage of sensitive information outside approved platforms is strictly prohibited as per ISO 27001 security standards.

Employees must sign NDAs (Non-Disclosure Agreements) before project allocation.

9. Password & Authentication Policy

Employees must create strong, unique passwords and update them regularly. Password sharing is not allowed. Multi-factor authentication (MFA) must be used wherever enabled to ensure secure system access.

10. IT & Communication Policy

Use of company-provided software and devices must be aligned with project purposes only.

Unlicensed software installation is prohibited.

Company email should be used only for professional communication. Employees must avoid sharing confidential data through unapproved channels. Communication should remain polite, clear, and respectful at all times.

11. Whistle-blower Policy

The company encourages employees to report any unethical behaviour, misconduct, fraud, or policy violations without fear of retaliation. All complaints will be handled confidentially, investigated fairly, and appropriate action will be taken. The identity of the whistle-blower will be protected to the fullest extent possible.

12. Performance & Evaluation

Employee Performance reviews will be conducted every six months through one-to-one discussions, i.e., Half Yearly and Yearly performance evaluation.

KPIs include code quality, client satisfaction, innovation, teamwork, and timely delivery.

Promotions and rewards will be granted based on merit and consistent performance, at the sole discretion of the Head of Department of SHNOOR International LLC. Rewards can be Monetary or Non- Monetary.

Interns are assessed at the end of their internship for PPO (Pre-Placement Offer) eligibility based on performance, discipline, learning attitude, and contribution.

13. Training & Development Policy

The company is committed to continuous learning and skill enhancement. Employees will receive regular training programs, workshops, and development opportunities based on their roles. Participation in mandatory training (technical, behavioural, compliance, or security) is required to maintain performance and organizational standards.

14. Project Management Policy

Projects must follow structured planning, progress tracking, documentation, review processes and approvals. Team members are expected to collaborate, meet deadlines, and maintain transparency in project execution.

Failure to follow the guidelines will lead to deductions from the monthly remuneration.

15. Deployment & Release Policy

All software releases must go through proper testing, quality checks and approvals from the concerned authorities. Only authorized team members may perform deployments to ensure security and stability.

16. Client Interaction Guidelines

Transparency, prompt response, and professionalism are mandatory in client interactions.

Any client escalation must be reported immediately to the reporting manager.

Employees must not make unauthorized commitments on behalf of SHNOOR International LLC.

17. Conflict of Interest Policy

Employees must not engage in activities or relationships that compromise objectivity or company interests. Any situation where personal gain could influence work decisions must be disclosed to HR for review.

18. POSH Policy

POSH policy protects all employees from any form of sexual harassment and ensures a safe, respectful workplace. Harassment includes unwanted advances, inappropriate touching, sexual comments, unofficial messages, jokes, or any behaviour that makes someone uncomfortable.

If anyone experiences or witnesses harassment, they must report it to HR/Admin within 30 days. All complaints are taken seriously, investigated confidentially, and appropriate action will be taken against the offender in accordance with guidelines by the legal team. Victims will be protected from any form of retaliation, and proven cases may result in termination.

To ensure a healthy work-life balance, no employee is allowed to communicate with colleagues via phone calls or messages after work hours unless it is a mutual and voluntary interaction for personal bonding. The organization holds no responsibility for any personal relationships between employees. However, for any business requirements or any work purpose calls or messages must be properly documented.

Speak up. We listen

19. Termination & Resignation Policy

In Termination, Employees will be required to serve a 30-day notice period. However, if the handover process is completed before the end of the notice period, the employee may be released earlier at the sole discretion of the HOD of SHNOOR International LLC. No experience letter will be provided in cases of termination.

In Resignation, Employees can resign by serving 30 days' notice period or by providing payment in lieu of the notice period. However, to be eligible for an experience letter, employees must have completed a minimum of 6 months of service with the organization.

In the event that an intern voluntarily discontinues their internship with the organization by submitting a written declaration stating their inability to continue due to work pressure or any other personal reasons, the intern shall not be entitled to receive the stipend for that particular period.

Final settlement and experience certificate will be provided within 45 days of the last working day.

All company assets and documentation must be returned during exit clearance.

20. Marketing & Social Media Policy

Employees must not represent the company on public platforms without authorization and must not share internal data, client details, or negative comments about the company on social media.

Any marketing content or media releases must be approved by the Marketing Lead or Management. Any external communication, interviews, or public representation requires management approval.

Strict action which may include legal action will be taken in case of any negligence.

21. Diversity & Inclusion Policy

The company is committed to providing a fair, respectful, and inclusive workplace for all employees—irrespective of gender, caste, religion, ethnicity, or background. Harassment or discrimination of any kind will not be tolerated and will lead to legal action including termination of the employment.

22. Travel Allowances Policy

Employees will be entitled to travel across the client locations within India / overseas may be quarterly/half yearly based on the client requirement. All the travel expenses & stay expenses will be borne by the company itself.

Reimbursable expenses must be supported with valid bills and submitted within the given timeframe, i.e., within 3 days after travel.

23. Employment Standing Orders

The Employment Standing Orders define the rules, standards, and expected conduct for all employees during their employment. These include guidelines on attendance, punctuality, discipline, workplace behaviour, leave procedures, misconduct, and termination conditions. The policy ensures transparency and consistency in managing employee rights and responsibilities. All employees are required to follow these standing orders as part of their employment terms.

24. Amendments

SHNOOR International LLC reserves the right to amend these policies from time to time. Employees will be notified of such changes via internal communication channels.

Approved by: Management, SHNOOR International LLC

01.04.2026

